BeckerH,DahlkeHO.Iamonmy10thdayandhaveonlylost4lbs. Continuous movement to great music makes it fun. Bones and muscles and veins lie just beneath the translucent, glowing wax of those hands. There are three main methods: the direct method, the indirect method and the double indirect method. It is only in Chapter 4, with the salon of another native patrician, Domenico Venier - a friend of vernacular music whose palace was the literary hub of midcentury Venice - that we come to see the full richness of exchange, the gala of personalities, the competitive forces they set in motion, and the fruitful intersection of art and ideas that the flexible social formation of Venice allowed. And sometimes it was possible to enact a psychodrama with a protagonist.
